Q1 :

Go through Part - I carefully, and make a list of a many words as you can find that indicate movement of different kinds. (There is one word that occurs repeatedly - count how many times!) Put them into three categories.

fast movement slow movement neither slow nor fast

Can you explain why there are many words in one column and not in the others?

Answer :

Fast movement	Slow movement	Neither slow nor fast
Earthquake	Floating	Walking
Rushed	Recede
Tremors Swept Ran
Fell
Climb

The 'fast movement' column has many more words as compared to the other two columns. This is because the story is about tsunami, which is a fast movement of waters. Due to tsunami, all the immediate actions are fast, such as running, climbing and sweeping away of people by water.

Q5 :

What are the different ways in which Tilly's parents could have reacted to her behavior? What would you have done if you were in their place?

Answer :

Not taking her seriously, Tilly's parents could have tried to calm her down thinking that she had been frightened by something. As a result, they could have been washed away by the tsunami waves.

If I were in their place, I too would have listened to her and realised that there was a danger approaching. Consequently, I too would have rushed away from the beach.

Q6 :

If Tilly's award was to be shared, who do you think she should share it with - her parents or her geography teacher?

Answer :

If Tilly's award was to be shared, she should share it with her geography teacher who made her aware of tsunami in the first place. It was this awareness that helped her save so many lives.

Q7 :

What are the two different ideas about why so few animals were killed in the tsunami? Which idea do you find more believable?

Answer :

Many people believe that animals possess a sixth sense and know when the earth is going to shake. On the other hand, some experts believe that animals' more acute hearing helps them hear or feel the earth's vibrations. They can sense an approaching disaster long before humans can realise it. This second idea is more believable.
